Guide for Discussion, Reflection and Listening (cont.)

Discussion Questions:

1. Which moments stood out to you the most? Which were the most moved by? Why?
2. If you had been preparing something with Jesus and He was arrested – which disciple, Roman, or Pharisee would you have responded like?
3. After the Romans take Jesus away, the disciples' relationship quickly devolve. What do you think they were feeling?
4. Philip and Andrew try to stop Tamar and the paralytic from sharing their testimony about Jesus. Why? Was one of them correct or were their each correct in their own right?
5. Andrew was very much struggling in this episode. Could you connect with how he reacted to the detaining of Jesus?
6. What did you think of the conversation between Jesus and Quintas?
7. Jesus notices that His disciples did not respond well to His arrest or work together well while He was gone. How did Jesus teach them to respond?
8. How do you tend to pray? Is it a significant part of your daily life?
9. The Disciples each have a distinct reaction to the Romans coming to arrest Jesus. What does this show you in relationship to what we know will happen the next time Jesus is arrested by the Romans?
